Evelyn B. Adamson

The moon is up, the stars are bright,

The wind is fresh and free!

We're out to seek for gold tonight

Across the silver sea!

The World was growing gray and old;

Break out the sails again!

We're out to seek a Realm of Gold

Beyond the Spanish Main.

We're sick of all the cringing knees,

The courtly smiles and lies.

God, let Thy singing Channel breeze

Lighten our hearts and eyes!

Mrs. Adamson,

I too have enjoyed having you very much and I can honestly say Spanish now needs a lot easier to learn. I would also like to say thanks for helping me so much with Baccalaureate without you I couldn't have done it.

Sincerely,
Percy Saunders

Mrs. Adamson
May God Bless
You in all the rest of your teaching career and after.
Peggy Taylor
'66

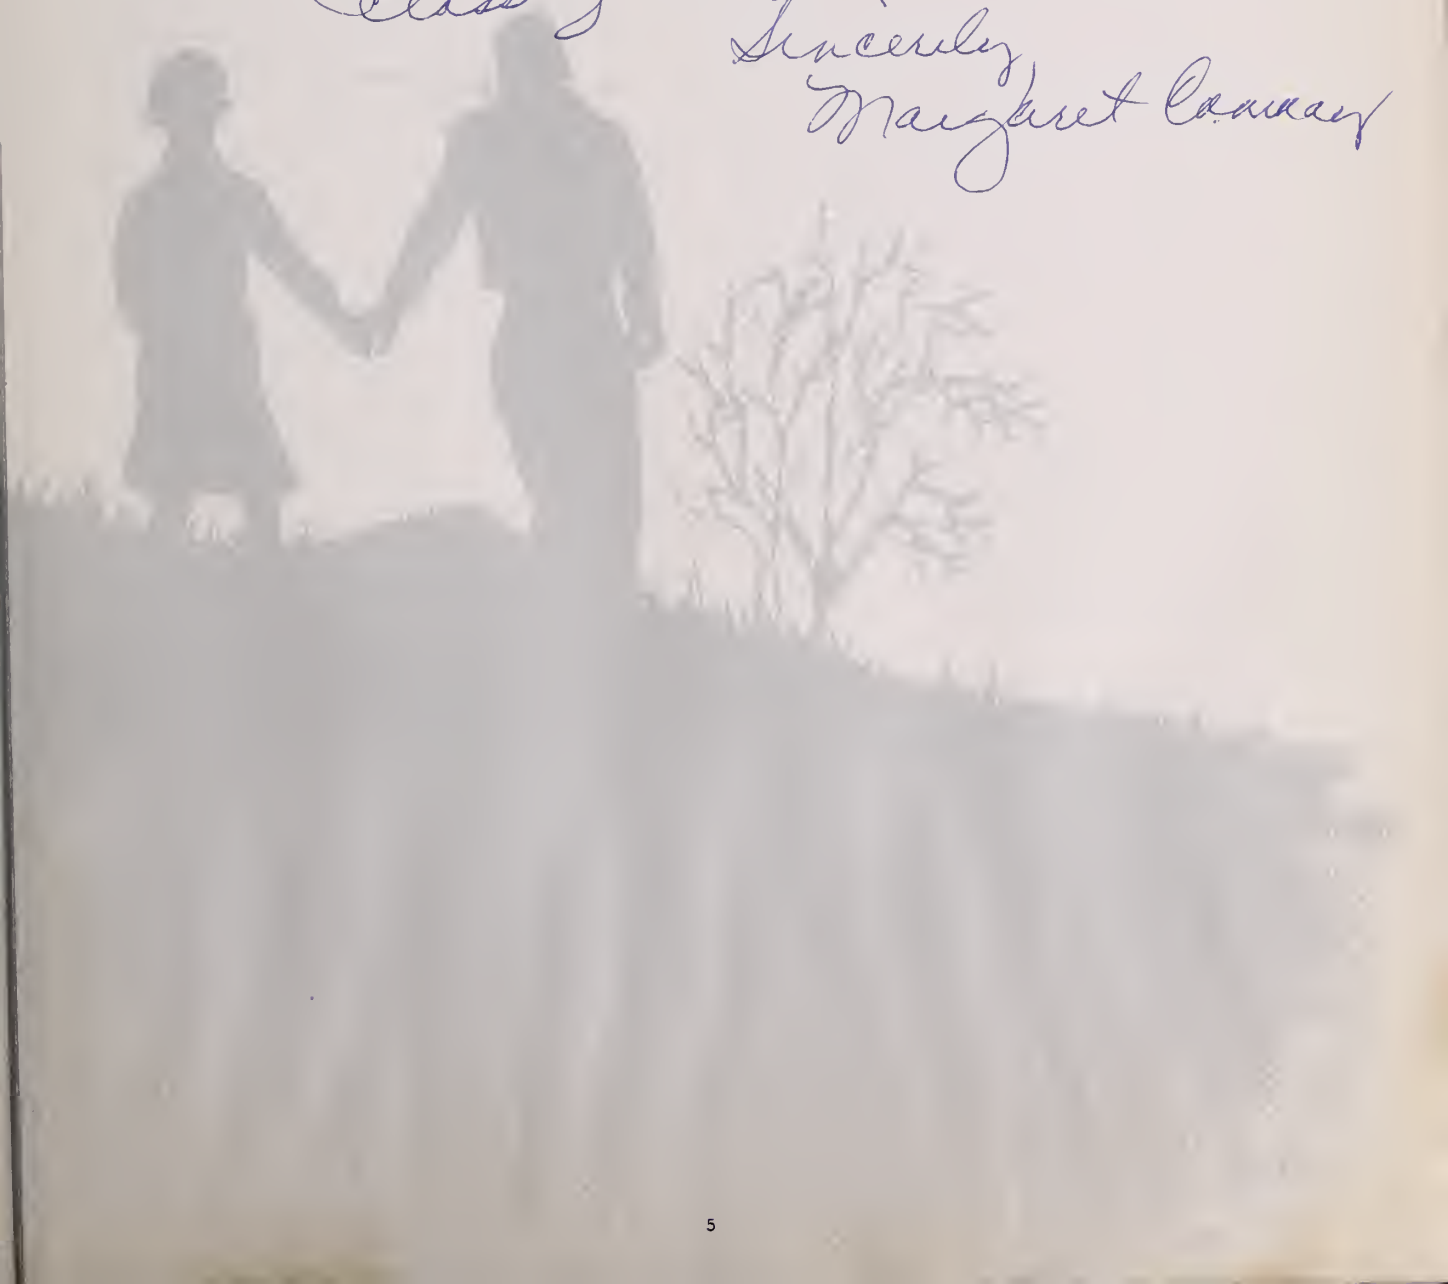

Let love no more be bought and sold
For earthly loss or gain.
We're out to seek an Age of Gold
Beyond the Spanish Main.

Beyond the light of far Cathay
Beyond all mortal dreams,
Beyond the reach of night and day
Our El Dorado gleams,
Revealing— as the skies unfold—
A star without a stain,
The Glory of the Gates of Gold
Beyond the Spanish Main.

Mrs. Adamson,

I must say I have learned a lot from you this year, even though my grades don't show it! Really though, I have enjoyed having you as a teacher as well as a class sponsor. Don't forget the Class of '64.

Sincerely,
Margaret Conway

CRADOC
HIGH SCHOOL BAN

IN APPRECIATION . . .

When we leave Cradock High behind, we shall carry in our minds and hearts the impression made upon us by a 'big' man, in the highest sense of the word. His coaching and t e a c h i n g have taught us lessons of living not to be learned from books. His friendly and patient attitude has gained him a warm place in the hearts of both students and faculty. His contribution of time and effort in and out of school has further endeared him to us. If ever one man represented the spirit of Cradock, it would be this man.

It is in recognition and appreciation of these things that we, the class of 1964, dedicate our ADMIRAL to Mr. Eure.

We dedicate to . . .

Mr. Mac Donald Eure

PORTSMOUTH SCHOOL BOARD

A. J. Mapp, Jr.
Superintendent of Schools

The Portsmouth School Board is an underlying factor in major activities of Cradock High School. It is with the guidance and encouragement of these prominent men and women that Cradock continues to strive toward the best

J. J. Booker, Jr.
Principal
University of Richmand, B.S.
William and Mary, M.A.

Cradock High School hos been one of the guiding lights for members of the senior class for the past five years. The two most important factors in the life of on individual are his home and school, for it is in these formative years one's pattern of life is set. It is the hope of the faculty ond administration that your direction os o member of the student body of this school has been wise and helpful.

Now that you, the seniors, are groduating, you will carry with you memories of your associations here throughout the years. The Admirol will give you o pictorial account of this, your most important year. Expression of appreciotion goes to those of the editorial staff who hove worked to moke this copy of your yearbook a success. It is our desire that you will spend mony happy hours in reminiscence of the days which have meont so much to you. This annual will help you keep olive these precious times.

Sincerely,

J. J. Booker, Jr.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

The ship we boarded in days now gone
Is slowing down, its voyage done;
And though we go to distant shores,
We'll remember for evermore—

The way we cheered at football games;
All the students who brought us fame;
Springtime fancies, winter sports;
Term papers and book reports.

Ivy clothes, Ash Wednesday snows;
Losing friends we loved so well,
The ringing of the Victory Bell.

Students and teachers who came and went;
Two new states and a new President;
Going to dances, joining clubs;
Reading the Shipmate, Admiral and Log.

We will realize through the years
That it's the little things we hold so dear;
For we won't forget as time goes by Saying the words "our unconquered Cradock High."

SENIOR CLASS COMPOSERS
Marian Hollowell
Tommy Pittman

SENIOR CLASS SONG

We are leaving behind us
The much hallow'd walls
That made us "someone" with our Achievements and falls.

We are facing a new world—
One we must explore—
With doubts in our minds as to
Which Path'—and what door.

To set our goals and reach them—
These things we will try—
You gave the foundation,
We thank you, Cradock High.

They sing our praise with the gift of the gods

OUR SENIOR CLASS

How short the road to graduation seems as we look back on it. Yet how long it appeared to us "Rats" as we knelt olong the Cradock corridors declaring our greatly unwarrented love for Seniors. We'd have our revenge, we vowed silently as we stumbled up the steps beneath the load of some mighty Senior's books. We'd show them whose class was tops. Just give us time.

It took only a little time for us to organize ourselves under the able leadership of our class officers, Danny Stegall, President; Linda Myers, Vice-President; Pennie Daniel, Secretary; and Don Jenson, Treasurer. Our capable sponsors, Miss Fitzgerald and Mr. Hohman, had a distinct stabalizing effect on our class during those first crucial months.

Homecoming was especially thrilling that year as Marian Hollowell gove our class its first representation in the festive Homecoming ceremony.

The events of our Freshman year picked up velocity as we began frantic preparations, under the direction of Harvey Bryant, for our Freshman-Sophomore prom. A fairy tale city scene came to life with the theme "Wonderland by Night."

Next came one of the biggest thrills in our class history. Miss Donna Atkinson, one of us "lowly freshman", won the "Miss Cradock Contest." It was indeed a night of triumph for the Class of '64.

Something else was brewing in our Freshman Class towards the latter part of the year; something vaguely known as our "German Project."

We returned to our Sophomore year with the happy knowledge that this year there was someone below us. With Harvey Bryant as our President; Theron Rollins, Vice-President; Brendo Poe, Secretary; Barbara Richardson, Treasurer; and Mrs. Wood and Miss Fary as sponsors, we were suddenly thrust into one of the most exciting whirlwind projects that any class had ever undertaken. A member of our class, Judy Gregory, is a native of Germany and through her efforts and the supervision of Miss Fitzgerald, a pen pal program with Judy's former German class and her Cradock English class had begun in our Freshman year. From this association there emerged a fantastic dream to bring one of our German friends to Cradock for the next Christmas. When we returned for our Sophomore year, busy preparations for a faculty play were in the making as a means of raising money to bring the student to America. The anticipation and hard work which went into the project were many times repaid as Miss Jutta Bohne, our "little German girl," finally arrived at Cradock and won our hearts with her friendliness and her simple wonder at so many of the luxuries which Americans take for granted.

Along with all this excitement came the usual activities of the year. Marion Sylvester represented us at Homecoming. Our prom committee headed by Pennie Danial and Mary Roberson began plans for the Freshman-Sophomore Prom. The Theme "Comelot" gave an air of gallontry to the offair as each couple crossed the moat into a lond of knights in shining armor.

How good it felt to return to school in September as upperclassmen. Our Junior year was a full and busy one.

Our officers were soon elected and working hard. They were Phil McMillion, President; Lindo Myers, Vice-President; Ginny Daughtry, Secretary; and Judy Gregory, Treasurer. Mr. Ashley and Mr. Maxson were our sponsors. We were extremely pleased to have our class well represented in the student Council. Leslie Hall was elected Vice-President and Connie Poulter was elected Secretary. In the Homecoming ceremonies we were gratifyingly represented by Ginny Daughtry. We were also very proud when Leslie Hall was chosen Maid of Honor in the Miss Cradock Contest.

Our Junior-Senior Prom, under the direction of Pennie Daniel and Harvey Bryant was a huge success. It pleosed even the Seniors as we bid them, "Bon Voyage" as they journeyed out onto the sea of life.

Next came the greatest thrill of the year as we ordered Senior class rings. When they finally orrived we floshed them about so freely that the Seniors were forced to pull out their sunglasses. Being a somewhat nostalgic class, we wanted to remember this milestone in a very speciol way and so the Class of '64 instituted a new tradition which wos colled a "Ring Dance."

Somehow receiving our rings promoted o somewhat spontaneous feeling of seniority. By the time we returned to school in the fall, we were thoroughly aware that we were now the ultimate of superiority at Cradock and we made certain that those wretched little Freshmen were the first to know. At last we had our revenge. Once again we turned to Phil McMillion to lead our class through our final year. Patsy Thomas was Vice-President; Judy Gregory, Secretary; Ginny Daughtry, Treasurer; and Joyce Van Sant, Secretary. Our Sponsors were Mrs. Adamson and Mr. Masters.

We were extremely proud when Harvey Bryant was elected President of the Student Council and Judy Gregory, Treasurer.

With a touch of sentimentality we remember our last Homecoming, headed by Patsy Thomas, the theme of which was "Through the Looking Glass."

We all admired Leslie Hall who reigned graciously as the Homecoming Queen. Joyce Van Sant was our Senior representative.

Again in our Senior year our class emerged with another "first." This was the institution of Senior privileges. Each class that succeeds us will walk through a special Senior Door for Seniors only; they will have a Senior dress-up day, a Senior section for assemblies in the gym and a special Senior assembly. All these privileges were granted through the efforts of the Class of '64 led by Doug Adylette, Marian Hollowell, and Phil McMillion.

Many individual members of our class brought special honor to our class. Ray Strutton was elected district President of the Future Teachers of America; Bill Brown was a Merit Scholarship Finalist; Harvey Bryant was elected Governor of Boys' State; Ray Strutton and Kent Saunders, Senators; and Judy Gregory was appointed Treasurer of Girls' State. Connie Poulter was a semi-finalist in the National Teachers Council of English Scholarship award and also received a superior rating on her entry in the creative writing booklet on both district and state levels. Patsy Hicks had a poem accepted in the National High School Poetry Anthology, and Harvey Bryant was the citywide winner in an American Legion Oratorical Contest.

We were all extremely proud when the top three scholars of our class were announced in the order of their rank as Rannie Vernon, Linda Myers, and Ray Strutton.

The final semester of our Senior year begon to snowball toward it's dramatic finish. We will all long remember our rollicking Senior class play, our lovely Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Banquet, baccalaureate, and finally the long awaited graduation from our beloved alma mater. Some of us were ecstatic at the thought of graduation; some were a little misty-eyed and reminiscent, but all of us, close though we had grown, looked forward with eager anticipation to the separate walks of life before us.

D. Mrs. Adamson,

there are few people for whom I hold as ideals for my future life and you are such a person. May I say that I have enjoyed your class in more ways than one. I have learned much from you, and it is my wish that one day, I can be half the fine, noble woman you are.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Under the successful leadership of Andy Stampley, class president, the Sophomores have experienced a very eventful year.

The Sophomore class was nobly represented in the Homecoming festivities by Donna Armstrong.

Our biggest and most exciting project this year was the Freshman-Sophomore Prom. With the collection of dues and excellent student support we were able to carry out a very beautiful prom.

We, the Sophomores, can truthfully say that this year has been one to remember. We shall look forward with much anticipation to our last two years at Cradock.

As long as school spirit like that of the Freshman Class exists, the U.S.S. Cradock will go along under full steam.

Our school spirit and the guidance of our class president, Gary Phillips, have brought us through another successful year. In the Homecoming festivities we were represented by Paula Smith and Dana Winkler. We worked along with the sophomore class to make our Prom the finest yet.

It has been a wonderful year, one we'll always remember. We're looking forward eagerly to our years as Cradock Admirals.

THE EIGHTH GRADE

EIGHTH GRADE CLASS PRESIDENT
Steve Clark

We, the Eighth Grade Class, have had a very successful first year at Cradock. We are very proud of our accomplishments in sports and other activities.

We shall always remember the thrill of the Washington trip and the Spring picnic.

Our class is looking forward to the next four years at Cradock and we hope that they will be as profitable as this year has been.

1963 Season

When the 1963 faatball season began, inexperience was ane of the main prablems. Another problem was the lack of a big name star. This year there was no Eddie Hause ar Larry Chinn araund which ta build a team. But as the seasan pragressed, John Ivy, John Griffin, Ralph Geabhart.

Fighting Admirals

Buddy Pleasants and Jack Templeton were getting their share af the publicity in the Eastern District. In the first three games that Cradack last, the score could have very easily been the other way with any breaks at all.

In the next three games with Suffalk, Granby and Maury, Cradock won all three.

In a hard faught game with Norview, the latter played ane of their best games of the year and won.

Against Churchland and Wilson the Cradack eleven was just outplayed. The season record of 3-7 was one af Coach Weldan's few lasing seasons.

Next year we expect Ike Sherlock, Ranald Conway, and Billy Janes to lead the line. In the backfield Geabhart, Templeton, Griffin, and Strickland will be back.

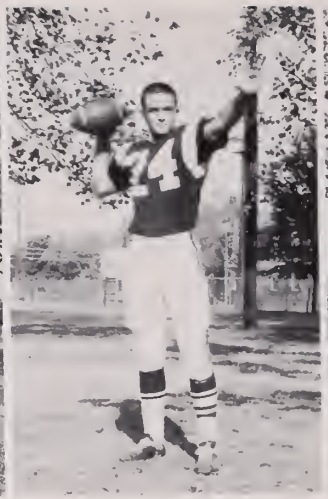

This next seasan cauld be one of the best Cradock has had in a long time.

The Fighting Admirals In Action . . .

Senior players Charles Dail and Joe Martin team up to drop a would-be scorer before he breaks away into the clear.

Billy Janes throws the key block as Templeton carries for Craddock's first touchdown play of the season against Deep Creek in opener.

"Where did they come from?" asks Pleasants as the ball carrier is brought down by a host of tacklers.

Jock Templeton, os he did all year, runs around the end for a short gain ond a first down.

Louis Edelstein brings down a Suffolk "Red Raider" as Crodock tops Suffolk.

"Monster-Man" Griffin bats down a pass in game with Princess Anne.

Defensivemen Harris and Dail get ready to bring down another opponent who had braken into the open.

The Admiral's star end Buddy Pleasants catches a pass from Geabhart in loss to Deep Creek.

HISTORY

The Cradock cagers finished the 1963-64 seasan with just an average year. The team, mainly campased af juniors, was faced with inexperience and a lack of badly needed height.

The Admirals were caached by Mr. Mac Eure and anchored by Wayne Prince, Dennis Novack, Buddy Pleasants, Ralph Geabhert Daug Gilmare, and Lean Bell.

Co-captains, Buddy Pleasants and Wayne Prince opened the seasan against a victorous Great Bridge. But the Admirals rallied in the next game against Oscar Smith and finished the season with a 7-11 record.

A highlight af the year came during the Yuletide seasan which held a series af victaries for the Admirals. In the Christmas Tournament held at Knapp High School in Currituck, North Carolina, they successfully defeated Knapp High Schaal and Elizabeth City High School ta win the championship.

Although the seasan laaked dim as far as the Admiral cagers were concerned, the seniors bid farewell ta a pramising team of the future.

Hord work, proctice, storvotion diets, ond o cooch who really cares—these are a few of the words which symbolize the varsity wrestling teom.

We at Crodock are very proud of this yeor's teom. Aside from placing fourth in the district, they completed a win agoinst Deep Creek, Churchland, and Wilson to take the city championship—a first for Crodock.

Ike Sherlock hos shown greot progress this yeor, sporting a 12-1 record. Other wrestlers with impressive records are Lonnie Porker, Teddy Bailey, Robbie Kalkreuth, J. K. Peele, ond heovyweight, Bernie Grimes.

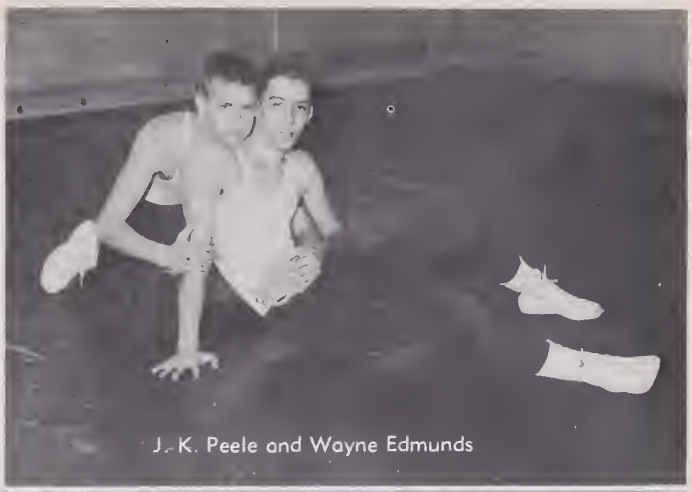

Losing only two seniors with the close of this season, Ccach Jack Veazie is locking foreward to next year with great anticipation. "We hod the best team we've ever had this year, but I expect to hove an even better team next year."

Hard work and numerous projects have been the 1963-64 diet of the Student Council. From September to June, the Council under the direction of Miss Elizabeth West, centered its activities around the year's objectives which were:

ATTAINING NEW HEIGHTS BY:

1. Stressing the importance of a sense of responsibility to one's self and to our school.
2. Striving toward a stronger feeling of patriotism and citizenship within our school.

new Heights."

3. Promoting a closer understanding of other countries through a foreign exchange program.

By placing the emphasis on greater individual responsibility and self-reliance in all phases of student life, the Student Council has tried to make 1963-64 truly a year of "ATTAINING NEW HEIGHTS."

"Impossible!" "Oh, horrors!" were some of the horrified exclamations of the girls in Admiralettes as they realized that an hour before parade time they lacked enough flowers for their float. Hurried hands set about making the flowers and adding the finishing touches which helped make the float a winner.

Through the years, though the girls of Admirals have not always been the winners of prizes, they have reaped the rewards of working together and seeing their projects successfully completed.

OFFICERS: Susan Belding, Elizabeth Wright, Lynn Waters, 2nd row: Dale Brinsan, Linda Meads.

The new Delta sponsored by the Junior Women's Club, started off the school year with a bang by showing a great deal of enthusiasm for Homecoming. (If you noticed any droopy eyes the day of Homecoming, it was because of the swinging pajama party the night before.)

Throughout the year the girls of Delta engaged in various service programs, and projects. Among these were the cleaning of the showcases and the sponsoring of an Honor Roll party.

The purpose of Delta was to serve the community and school through beneficial projects and activities.

BOYS' STATE and GIRLS' STATE

In keeping with the trend of Craddock students to excell anywhere, any time, three of our boys went to the American Legion Boys State in Blacksburg, Virginia, held at V.P.I. Ray Strutton, Kent Saunders, and Harvey Bryant made sure that Cradock got its share of the honors. Three, with 590 boys vieing for the positions, Ray and Kent came home as Senators, and Harvey as Governor. All three boys agree that the honors they received were not as important as what they learned and experienced at Boys State.

Boys State is a study of the government of Virginia and its executive, legislative, and judicial forms, in the city and state. The boys were taught by prominent Virginians the ways of good politics and government.

Cradock was represented at Girls State by Judy Gregory. Girls State was run in the same manner as Boys State but was held on the Radford College campus in Radford, Virginia. Judy received the honor of State Treasurer.

STATE TREASURER:
Judy Gregory

BELLAMY

The Bellamy Award, founded for the purpose of recognizing Francis Bellamy, author of the Pledge of Allegiance, has grown a great deal since it was presented to Cradock in 1943. This year, the annual presentation was held in Chattanooga, Tennessee where Central High School received the award. Before an auditorium packed, not only with Central students, but with Tennessee Congressmen, District and Citywide officials, and dignitaries from other Bellamy states, the governor of Tennessee gave an inspiring message on patriotism. A number of congratulatory messages were read to the student body, among them was one from the late President, John F. Kennedy.

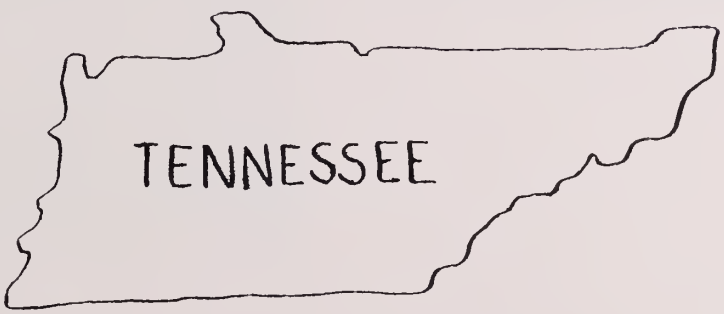

With strains of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" still reverberating in the atmosphere, Central High School received the coveted Bellamy flag. The beauty and reverence of the moment were suspended as the honor guard marched outside and raised the flag over Central. Inside the auditorium, we could hear the faintly sounded taps which signified Centrals greatest glory.

CANDID

"Whotever you do don't stick me with thot pin."

"Smile you're on Condid Camero."

"Perhaps you can help me with my problem." "I lost my husbond."

"There's nothing more fun than a long assembly in the gym."

SNAPS

"You spell it . . . S-E-X"

"Am I offensive?"

"You students on the third row, wake up!"

"What do you think about this abstract tree?"
